

1954 TORRANCE BUSINESS REVIEW 1954

Copa Cabana, 1831 E. Anaheim Street in Wilmington, is known as "the place to spend an evening"—it's different, you'll really like it. Owner Joseph L. Castro features Mexican food at its best, specializing in Piplan Ranchero music by Los Badoleros. For your dining and dancing pleasure in Wilmington, the Copa Cabana can't be beat. You will be delighted with the delicious food and perfectly mixed cocktails you will find here.

"A good place to spend your evening or lunch hour" is how many patrons describe the Stepp Inn, 1085 N. Pacific Ave. in San Pedro. Serving stout orders, sandwiches, lunches, and complete dinners, the Stepp Inn also features beer and shuffleboard. Oliver J. Stepp, owner, invites you to stop by once and you will make it a habit. With a reputation as a place where you can make new acquaintances and renew old ones, the Stepp Inn has become very popular.

Walter M. Bugbee of the Ames Painting Co., 1854 Jaybrook Drive in San Pedro, is pictured above with his partner David Boerschig who handles the interior decorating end of the business which has been in this area since 1941. Both partners offer guaranteed work on everything they do from spray and brush painting to paperhanging and waterproofing. A call to TE 3-4302 or TE 3220 anytime will receive prompt attention.

George H. Ware of 1971 Plaza Del Amo, with 31 years' experience in this line of work, offers 24-hour plumbing service throughout the Torrance area. Any type of plumbing—new, repair and remodeling is done by George H. Ware Plumbing and Mr. Ware can be reached by calling FA 8-7591 any time day or night. Keep that number by your telephone to use in case of an emergency.
